

Asia Pacific Drosophila Neurobiology Conference
アジア太平洋ショウジョウバエ神経生物学会議

Feb 27 – March 1, 2024
Suzuki Umetaro Hall, RIKEN Wako Campus

The Asia Pacific Drosophila Neurobiology Conference 3 (APDNC3) will bring researchers across the globe to the Asia Pacific region to discuss the latest findings in Neurobiology, using Drosophila as a powerful model. Sessions will highlight cutting-edge technology, medical research, cell and developmental biology, behavior, and physiology. The meeting will be highly interactive, giving students and up-and-coming researchers opportunities to interact with already-established field leaders. Many additional talks selected from abstracts provide good presentation opportunities for young researchers and research groups from across the diverse cultures of the Asia Pacific region. There will also be a series of career development sessions.
